

Lake Worth Lagoon Initiative
Water Working Group – Decision Analysis Framework

Project Description Template for Ongoing and Proposed Monitoring and Research

This project description template should be completed for all ongoing and proposed monitoring and/or research projects. Submit completed project form to Rod Braun at rbraun@sfwmd.gov.

Project Title:
Project Team (All agencies, districts, groups, etc.):
What are the questions to be answered by the monitoring and/or study? This section should include the central question(s) to be answered by the study and include a summary of the problem being addressed and objectives of the project. If hypotheses are to be tested, state them here. Why is this project important?
List and briefly describe attributes monitored/studies and why important: This section should include parameters and attributes of the study and the importance of each.
Project Summary: This section should include a high-level summary of the project and basic methodology.
How is this project used for adaptive management? This section should include how the results of the project will be used to adaptively manage Lake Worth Lagoon.